

The ring is closed, so it stays on the axle.

The ring jumps between the electron-rich areas of the axle when heat is added.

